The Trust is not able to comply with your request without exceeding the appropriate limit.
The Trust holds information relating to diabetes and to eating disorder in individual electronic patient records. Diagnostic information was recorded in an unstructured form in patient electronic health records and therefore detailed manual review would be required to find and collate the information requested.   There are over 1000 individual records to review and even if it took only 5 minutes to review each record a minimum of 83 hours work would be required to comply with your request. The appropriate limit set in regulation by section 12 of the Freedom of Information Act is 18 hours.

Information relating to diabetes services and eating disorder services can be found on the Trust website:

If you are unhappy with the service you have received in relation to your request and wish to make a complaint or request a review of our decision, you should write to me and I will ensure the decision is reviewed. The Trust will consider undertaking a review if requested to do so within 40 working days of the date the response is received by the applicant, and will apply discretion if a longer period of time has passed.

Should you wish to make a complaint as a result of the outcome of such a review, you may apply directly to the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO) for a decision.

Generally, the ICO cannot make a decision unless you have exhausted the complaints procedure provided by the Trust for FoI Act matters.
